Expertise

Erik Danhard is partner in Hamilton's Employment practice. Erik provides clients with traditional and strategic advice on matters such as company acquisitions, in- and outsourcing, terminations, work environment investigations, trade secrets, privacy and compensation and benefits. A large part of Erik's practice is based around dispute resolution, where he acts as counsel, mediator and arbitrator in litigation cases. Erik also has extensive experience in dispute resolution and legal proceedings within other areas of law. Erik is frequently engaged as a lecturer by universities and private education providers. Erik is ranked as leading lawyer within employment by Chambers and Partners and is recommended by Legal 500.
